RESOLUTION

Expressing support for the International Olympic Committee to recognize with a minute of silence at every future Olympics Opening Ceremony those who lost their lives at the 1972 Munich Olympics, and for other purposes.

Whereas, in September 1972, in the midst of the Munich Olympic games, members of Black September, a terrorist group with ties to the Palestine Liberation Organization's Fatah movement, murdered 11 members of the Israeli Olympic Team, including athletes, coaches, and referees, 9 of whom had been taken as hostages;

Whereas the 11 victims were David Berger, Ze'ev Friedman, Yoseff Gutfreund, Moshe Weinberg, Yoseff Romano,

Mark Slavin, Eliezer Halfin, Yakov Springer, Andre Spitzer, Amitzur Shapira, and Kehat Shorr;

Whereas Anton Fliegerbauer, a West German police officer, was also killed in the terrorist attack;

Whereas the international community was deeply affected by the brutal murders at the 1972 Munich Olympics and memorials have been placed around the world, including in Manchester, United Kingdom, Tel Aviv, Israel, and Munich, Germany;

Whereas the Jewish Community Center (JCC) in Rockland County, New York, has placed a sculpture honoring the eleven Israelis who were killed at the 1972 Munich Olympics;

Whereas the Opening Ceremonies of every JCC Maccabi Games since 1995 has included a memorial tribute to the murdered Israeli athletes, among the first victims of organized terrorism in our time;

Whereas in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, during the 2016 Olympic games, the International Olympic Committee inaugurated the Place of Mourning to honor the memory of 15 people killed during Olympic Games;

Whereas the Place of Mourning commemorates the 11 Israeli victims, the German policeman who was killed in the failed rescue attempt in Munich, two victims of a bomb attack at the 1996 Atlanta Games, and Georgian luger Nodar Kumaritashvili, who died in an accident at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver; and

Whereas the 2020 Olympic games, held from July 23, 2021, to August 8, 2021, in Tokyo, Japan, commemorated the 11 Israeli athletes murdered at the 1972 Munich Olympics: Now, therefore, be it

18      as antithetical to the Olympic goal of peaceful com-
