IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 13, 2025

Mr. DIAZ-BALART (for himself and Mr. MOSKOWITZ) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Education and Workforce, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to reauthorize and expand the National Threat Assessment Center of the Department of Homeland Security.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “EAGLES Act of 5 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

1 (1) On February 14, 2018, 17 individuals were
2 murdered in a senseless and violent attack on Mar-
3 jory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland
4 Florida, a school whose mascot is the eagle.

5 (2) These individuals—Alaina Petty, Alex
6 Schachter, Alyssa Alhadeff, Cara Loughran, Carmen
7 Schentrup, Gina Montalto, Helena Ramsay, Jaime
8 Guttenberg, Joaquin Oliver, Luke Hoyer, Martin
9 Duque, Meadow Pollack, Nicholas Dworet, Peter
10 Wang, Aaron Feis, Chris Hixon, and Scott Beigel—
11 lived lives of warmth, joy, determination, service,
12 and love, and their loss is mourned by the Nation.

13 (3) Like many attackers, the shooter in that at-
14 tack exhibited patterns of threatening and con-
15 cerning behavior prior to the massacre that were 16 alarming and that should have alerted law enforce-
17 ment and other Federal, State, and local officials
18 about the potential for violence.

19 (4) Acts of targeted violence, including the at-
20 tack on Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School,
21 are preventable.

22 (5) Lives were saved because of the brave and 23 exemplary conduct of many students, teachers, and 24 staff at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, in-25 cluding several of the victims of the attack.

1 (6) The Secret Service National Threat Assess-
2 ment Center (referred to in this Act as the “Cen-3 ter”) was established in 1998 to conduct research on 4 all forms of targeted violence, including attacks tar-
5 geting government officials, government facilities,
6 workplaces, houses of worship, K–12 schools, univer-
7 sities, and mass attacks in public spaces.

8 (7) Research published by the Center on tar-
9 geted violence has shown that—

10 (A) most incidents were planned in ad-
11 vance;

12 (B) the attackers’ behavior gave some indi-
13 cation that the individual was planning, or at 14 least contemplating, an attack;

15 (C) most attackers had already exhibited a 16 pattern of behavior that elicited concern to 17 other people in their lives; and

18 (D) prior to the attack, someone associated 19 with the attacker, such as a family member or 20 peer, often knew the attack was to likely to 21 occur.

22 (8) Through their research, the Center devel-
23 oped the Secret Service’s behavioral threat assess-24 ment model for preventing targeted violence, which 25 includes a 3-step process—

1 (A) identifying individuals who are exhib-
2 iting threatening or concerning behaviors that 3 indicate they may pose a risk of violence;

4 (B) assessing whether the individual poses
5 a risk, based on articulable facts; and

6 (C) risk posed by the individualized
7 proactive and preventive measures.

8 (9) The Secret Service's behavioral threat as-9 sessment model works most effectively when all the 10 relevant parties, including local law enforcement,
11 mental health professionals, workplace managers,
12 school personnel, and members of the community,
13 are part of a comprehensive protocol to identify, as-
14 sess, and manage a potential threat.

15 (10) The primary goal of behavioral threat as-16 sessment programs is to prevent targeted violence,
17 with an emphasis on providing early intervention
18 and connecting individuals exhibiting threatening or 19 concerning behavior to existing community resources
20 for support.

21 (11) Early intervention is a proven and effective
22 way to prevent violent conduct that would otherwise
23 harm others and necessitate more punitive action,
24 including criminal penalties.

1 (12) The parties involved need the appropriate
2 research, guidance, training, and tools to establish 3 the appropriate mechanisms for implementing this 4 type of preventative approach.

5 (13) In K–12 schools, a behavioral threat as-6 essment is a proactive approach to identify, assess,
7 and provide age-appropriate interventions, resources,
8 and supports for students who display behavior that 9 elicits concerns for the safety of themselves or oth-
10 ers.

11 (14) There has been a 79 percent decline in ju-
12 venile arrests in K–12 school communities who have 13 received Center training, thus successfully diverting
14 youth away from the criminal justice system.

15 (15) The demand from local communities
16 throughout the United States for behavioral threat
17 assessment trainings has significantly increased.
18 Since its inception, the Center has provided over 19 2,575 training sessions to over 273,000 attendees.

20 (16) From fiscal year 2018 to fiscal year 2022,
21 the Center has experienced a 117 percent increase in 22 demand for training sessions, with five times as 23 many participants.

24 (17) The Center additionally provides consulta-
25 tion and follow-up engagements with government

1 agencies, law enforcement, schools, and other organiza-
2 tions with public safety responsibilities. From fis-
3 cal year 2018 to fiscal year 2022 the Center has 4 seen a 553 percent increase in consultation activi-
5 ties.

6 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
7 gress that a fact-based behavioral threat assessment ap-
8 proach, involving local law enforcement, mental health
9 professionals, workplace managers, school personnel, other 10 public safety officials, and members of the community, is 11 one of the most effective ways to prevent targeted violence
12 impacting communities across the country, and is a fitting
13 memorial to those whose lives were taken in the February
14 14, 2018, attack on Marjory Stoneman Douglas High
15 School and those who heroically acted to preserve the lives
16 of their friends, students, and colleagues.
