S. 672

To establish the CCP Initiative program, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 20, 2025

Mr. SCOTT of Florida introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To establish the CCP Initiative program, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Protect America’s In-5       novation and Economic Security from CCP Act of 2025”.

6       SEC. 2. CCP INITIATIVE.

7           (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established in the 8       National Security Division of the Department of Justice
9       the CCP Initiative to—

10                   (1) counter nation-state threats to the United 11       States;

(2) curb spying by the Chinese Communist Party on United States intellectual property and academic institutions in the United States;

(5) identify cases under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (Public Law 95-213; 91 Stat. 1494) involving Chinese companies that compete with United States businesses;

23 (6) prioritize—

(A) identifying and prosecuting those engaged in trade secret theft, hacking, and economic espionage;

(B) protecting the critical infrastructure in the United States against external threats through foreign direct investment and supply chain compromises; and

(C) identifying Chinese Communist Party theft of intellectual property from small businesses; and

(7) investigate investments made by Chinese companies included on the Entity List maintained by the Bureau of Industry and Security of the Department of Commerce and set forth in Supplement No. 4 to part 744 of title 15, Code of Federal Regulations, or identified by the Secretary of Defense under section 1260H(a) of the William M. (Mac) Thornberry National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2021 (Public Law 116–283; 10 U.S.C. 113 note) as a Chinese military company operating directly or indirectly in the United States and report to the Secretary of Commerce or the Secretary of Defense, as appropriate, on any findings of such investigations, including findings related to subsidiaries or other entities controlled by such companies,

1       whether or not such subsidiaries or other entities are 2       registered in or operate in the People's Republic of 3       China.

4       (b) CONSULTATION.—In executing the CCP Initia-
5       tive's objectives as set forth in subsection (a), the Attorney
6       General, acting through the Assistant Attorney General
7       for National Security, shall consult with relevant compo-
8       nents of the Department of Justice as necessary, and co-
9       ordinate activities with the Federal Bureau of Investiga-
10      tion and any other Federal agency as necessary.

11      (c) REQUIREMENT.—Under the CCP Initiative—

12           (1) the Initiative shall be separate from and not 13       under the authority or discretion of any other De-
14       partment of Justice initiative dedicated to coun-
15       tering nation-state threats; and

16           (2) all resources used for the CCP Initiative
17       shall solely be set aside for the CCP Initiative and 18       shall not be combined to support any other Depart-
19       ment of Justice program, including other programs
20       and initiatives dedicated to countering nation-state
21       threats.

22      (d) ANNUAL REPORT.—The Attorney General shall 23       submit to the Committee on Homeland Security and Gov-
24       ernmental Affairs and the Committee on the Judiciary of 25       the Senate and the Committee on Homeland Security and

1 the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Rep-
2 resentatives on the progress and challenges of the CCP
3 Initiative over the preceding year, including—

4                 (1) its progress in accomplishing the objectives
5                 set forth in subsection (a);

6                 (2) the amount and sufficiency of resources
7                 provided to, and expended by, the CCP Initiative;

8                 (3) the level and effectiveness of coordination
9                 with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other 10                Federal agencies;

11                (4) the status of efforts by and the financial in-
12                telligence capabilities of the Chinese Communist 13                Party to engage in trade secret theft, hacking, and 14                economic espionage;

15                (5) an analysis of the use of unmanned aircraft
16                and associated elements (including communication
17                links and the components that control the unmanned
18                aircraft required for the operator to operate safely 19                and efficiently in the national airspace system) by 20                the Chinese Communist Party;

21                (6) the impact of the CCP Initiative on those 22                efforts of the Chinese Communist Party;

23                (7) the level and effectiveness of coordination
24                and information sharing between Federal agencies

1 and private companies about economic espionage
2 threats; and

3 (8) an assessment of the economic loss to the 4 United States as a result of hacking and trade se-
5 cret theft by the Chinese Communist Party.

6 (e) SUNSET.—This Act shall cease to be in effect on 7 the date that is 6 years after the date of enactment of 8 this Act.

9 (f) SEVERABILITY.—If any provision of this Act, or 10 the application of such provision to any person or cir-
11 cumstance, is held to be unconstitutional, the remainder 12 of this Act, and the application of the provisions of such 13 to any person or circumstance, shall not be affected there-14 by.
